

2015 Projects – HVAC Mission Project

Background:

This project comes from Leonard Rosenberg and Ministry Architecture, Inc. Len is an architect who designs buildings for ministry organizations all over the world with the goal of advancing the gospel. His current project involves a Christian Leadership University to be built in Burundi.

Project:

Work with Len to analyze the design a cooling system for the Leadership University. See the class folder for a full project description.

Skills Needed: HVAC, AutoCAD, Carrier HAP, Fluids, FEA Structural Analysis, CFD?

Karpinski Engineering has agreed to be a resource for this project. Requires a team of 10-12 students.

